

WKBD-TV
Public Affairs Programming
July 1 – September 30, 2008

Attached are listings of broadcast segments that in the station's judgment, reflect the most significant programming of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period.

Street Beat - Goes behind the headlines to focus on community issues and stories of interest to Metro Detroit presented in an upbeat mix of in-studio interviews and pre-produced packages by a crew of local people dedicated to improving our city.

For My People - A weekly local program produced by Project B.A.I.T. (Black Awareness in Television) explores issues concerning the community.

WKBD Quarterly Issues & Programs List
July 1 – September 30, 2008

Date	Duration	Issue/Topic Explanation
------	----------	-------------------------

Program: STREETBEAT

7/06/08 00:30:00 HEALTHCARE

David Law, Director of the Joy Southfield Healthcare Center and Remonia Chapman, Director, of Gift of Life Michigan, discuss TeleHEALTHCARE, a program designed to decrease the risk of hypertension among African Americans.

8/17/08 00:30:00 HEALTHCARE

Annie Propson and Ernie Boyce, discuss "Paint a Miracle", an organization designed to help people with disabilities discover the joys of painting. Michigan State Police Lieutenant, Gary Megge and Joann Moss from Children's Hospital of Michigan explain the states new booster seat law.

8/31/08 00:30:00 HEALTHCARE

Street Beat explores cancer treatments and prevention with guests: Frank Vicini, M.D., Chief of Oncology, William Beaumont Hospital. Monty Fakhouri, Minority Outreach Program Coordinator, Dr. Jeffrey Taub, Children's Hospital of Michigan, Nancie Petrucelli, Senior Genetic Counselor, and Coordinator for the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute. Street Beat Community Correspondent Eddie Connor is a cancer survivor and he joins Tim Lawlis to discuss his battle with the disease.

9/14/08 00:30:00 HEALTHCARE

Guests, Alyssa Johnson and Greg Pawlica from Steppin' Out, discuss AIDS Detroit Walk. Erik Morganroth provides information on The Food Allergy and Anaphylaxis Network and its upcoming Walk. Community Correspondent, Eddie Connor talks to Tiffany Tilley about the MANNIE Project that helps rebuild Detroit neighborhoods. Courtney Miller explains the upcoming "Day of Peace" event and Russ Palmitier talks about special tours of the historic Packard plant. Randa Hermez returns to sign two upcoming events in the Deaf community: The Deaf Arts Fair and a special film by Ryan Commerson shot in sign language.

7/13/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

(OAD: 5/25/08) This week's spotlight is on the Detroit music scene. Guests include members of the Detroit Music Foundation. Author, Jim Mitchell, discusses his book about Detroit rocker, Mitch Ryder. Jane Hoehner, Director, Wayne State University Press, explains their book selection process. Lastly, we also explore Indian Dance with guest Raksha Dave and learn interesting information about the Detroit Science Center, the Southfield Library, and the Michigan Humane Society.

7/20/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

Tim Lawlis takes a look at the upcoming Orchard Lake Fine Arts Festival with event organizer Patty Narozny. Miriam Noland, Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan discusses the greenways initiative in Detroit. Eddie Connor interviews Shervonne Taylor about Junior Achievement. Amikka Smith talks about a special mentoring program designed to assist women business owners from Afghan. Deb Goodlaski, discusses the Bright Summerfest Mardi Gras

7/27/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

Guests, Nicole Paige and Robert Fanning from Inside Out, Omari Barksdale from, Echoverse Slam Poetry team, Bollywood producers, Nipa Shah and Arvin Shah discuss art and poetry.

8/03/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

Street Beat visits the 16th century during the Renaissance Festival. Tiffany Hartung and Shirley Bavonese of the Sierra Club discuss the Green Cruise. U.S. Border patrol agents, Richard Gordon and Allayne Nolan discuss employment opportunities and we explore the Michigan Political Leadership Program Fellowship.

8/10/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

Street Beat explores two Detroit area landmarks, the Detroit Institute of Arts and the Redford Theatre. Local talent, PJ Olsson, singer-songwriter and rocker mom Judy Davis discuss the local music scene.

8/24/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

(O.A.D. 6.22.08) Street Beat Host Tim Lawlis learns about Ballast Free Ships that can help protect our Great Lakes. Guests, Terri Covington and Kathy Emrich from Detroit Central City Mental Healthcare Services discuss substance abuse. Kid Black Fedio, explains the importance of singing to babies. Women's Equality Day and the Great Safety Adventure at the Michigan State Fair are also discussed.

9/21/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

Terrance Shulman from the Shulman Organization discusses compulsive spending. Casting director, Kathy McKee on Michigan's booming film industry and how locals can join the cast as extras. Rodney Harris, a high school student who anchors his own news show on the web joins Community Correspondents Russ Palmitier and Courtney Miller, to discuss the Random Acts of Kindness Foundation and its' celebrity golf outing.

9/28/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

Organizer, Brian Heath, discusses Detroit's Fashion Week. Lynn Wilhelm and Diane Martin on a fundraiser to help COTS shelter. Community Correspondent Nicol Paige interview Deborah Younger from Local Initiatives Support Corporation. In the final segment, Tim learns a little Mandarin Chinese from Dr. Ernando Minghine and Glen Taylor from Westwood School District.

9/07/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

This week on Street Beat host Tim Lawlis, discusses the presidential election with Nat Erlich, senior researcher, Michigan State University. Chris Rossman, Chamber Music Society discussed the Chamber's 65th Season and the popularity of Chamber Music. Larry Brady explains reverse mortgages and Sharon Parks, President, Michigan League for Human Services explains the organizations outreach efforts.

Date	Duration	Issue/Topic Explanation
------	----------	-------------------------

Program: FOR MY PEOPLE

7/12/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

Host David Rambeau, shares his perspective on the Iraq War and the scandal involving Detroit Mayor, Kwame Kilpatrick, and his former Chief of Staff, Christine Beatty. Lawrence X discussed in his African Report, the role of oil, African dictators, and the response of the U. S. government. Guest Queen Mother Osun Dara, discussed the worldwide cultural unity of people of African descent and their need to relate to each other on a productive and positive basis.

7/19/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

The potential candidacy of former Detroit Piston and local businessman Dave Bing for Mayor of Detroit is spotlighted. Lawrence X discussed in his African Report, the indictment of Sudan's President for genocide and crimes against humanity. Ron Scott discussed the importance of youth mentoring.

7/26/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

Current political events in Zimbabwe (the detente of Mugabe and Tsvangerai) and in the Sudan (the indictment of Bashir and the U. S. and Chinese response) are discussed on this week's show. David Rambeau discussed the chaos involving Detroit Public Schools regarding the non-payment of vendors.

8/16/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

On this edition of For My People, Lawrence X discussed the coup in the African nation of Mauritania, and the transfer of land from Nigeria to Cameroon, while David Rambeau discussed the on-going Detroit mayoral scandal.

8/23/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

Host, David Rambeau presented arguments explaining why Mayor Kilpatrick should not resign. Angelo Scott Brown discussed why he is leading an organizing to recall the mayor. Lawrence X discussed the role of athletes of the African Diaspora in the Beijing Olympics, and provided an update on the land transfer from Nigeria to Cameroon, and the elusive political ways of President Mugabe of Zimbabwe.

8/30/08 00:30:00 POLITICAL

On this edition of For My People, Mark Wells, commentator, discussed affirmative action at universities in Brazil. David Rambeau discussed Barack Obama and John McCain's economic policies. Lawrence X discussed the elections in Zimbabwe and Angola, and African interest in Barack Obama and the upcoming election.

7/05/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

David Rambeau in his Rambeau Report discussed the financial difficulties facing the automotive industry, the Detroit City Hall scandal, and the Iraq war. Lawrence X in his African Report discussed the African Union Mission and its importance to people of African heritage in the Diaspora. Mark Wells reported on blacks living in Brazil.

8/02/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

O.A.D. (7/5/08) Lawrence X in his African Report discussed the African Union Mission and its importance to people of African heritage in the Diaspora. Mark Wells reported on blacks living in Brazil. David Rambeau in his Rambeau Report discussed the financial difficulties facing the automotive industry, the Detroit City Hall scandal, and the Iraq war.

8/09/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

On this edition of For My People, Lawrence X discussed the underdevelopment of Africa by the UN in terms of its failure to provide sufficient peacekeepers, material logistics and military equipment in the Horn of Africa. David Rambeau discussed the Beijing Olympics and the need for activism by black athletes.

9/06/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

On this edition of For My People, David Rambeau reviews Harry Edwards' The Revolt of the Black Athlete, Lawrence X in his African Report discussed the importance of African oil to the United States, and the absolute monarchy, corruption and exploitation in Swaziland.

9/13/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

On this edition of For My People, David Rambeau discussed the Detroit Public Library's program, Detroit Reads. Lawrence X in the African Report discussed two seminars on political and social action on the continent being held by the UN and by the AU.

9/27/08 00:30:00 PUBLIC AWARENESS

David Rambeau discussed the $700 billion bailout of financial institutions with suggestions to improve the process, and the continuing financial mess at Detroit Public Schools with the potential for state takeover. Lawrence X discussed an update of the power sharing arrangement in Zimbabwe and the role of political violence and investment in Africa through national stock exchanges.

9/27/08 00:30:00 ECONOMY

David Rambeau discussed the number of bailouts as graphic examples of corporate welfare in America and the current frailty of the U.S. economic system. We discuss the reprimand of Detroit Public Schools, Superintendent Connie Calloway by the board. Lawrence X discussed the power-sharing agreement in Zimbabwe and the resilience of President Robert Mugabe